ORIC Professional Development

Dated: June 6, 2024

ORIC Professional Development organized a seminar on the "Protection against Harassment of Women at the Workplace Act, 2010" was a valuable and well-attended event. Dr. Aliya Moeen Zafar Chief Research Officer, Humanities Department surely contributed to the seminar's success. The inclusion of dynamic presentations, an awareness video, and a Q&A session indicates a comprehensive approach to educating attendees about this important topic.

The positive attendance from faculty, non-faculty, and staff members reflects a collective interest in understanding and addressing issues related to workplace harassment. The participants' demand for similar sessions to be repeated underscores the importance of continuous education and awareness-building, particularly within the context of COMSATS University Islamabad.

Overall, it seems like the seminar served its purpose in fostering dialogue, raising awareness, and emphasizing the significance of creating a safe and respectful workplace environment for all employees.

Seminar pictures, attendance sheet and brochure are attached herewith.
