

General Information

Joint Student Camp

Islamic Azad University, Isfahan, Iran

* Overview

🎯 Key Objectives

📋 Strategy & Mechanism

📅 Program Tentative

👥 Participant Selection

🗑️ Administrative Board

📝 The Joint Student
Camp Conclusion

This Joint Student Camp sets out to establish a platform for high-potential students to network and exchange ideas across cultures. The program aims to unite a focused group of students from diverse ethnicities and nationalities to gather with Iranian students particularly from Islamic Azad University of Isfahan.

1

OVERVIEW

The program will invite a select group of students from participating university (COMSATS University Islamabad) to visit the IAU Isfahan and encourage further academic cooperation between both countries. This program will concentrated on subjects such as economy, scientific, culture, and education in bilateral relations, as well as inter-regional cooperation between countries in the Asia. The Camp will help to propel this agenda by empowering selected students, from both universities to have access to prestigious educational training and intellectual exchange with one another.

Those students who are specialize in Electrical Engineering
Computer Engineering, Mechanical Engineering,
Eearth Science, Policy Studies, Economics.

• Agenda

A one-week camp program will be held for 7 days, with two parts each day:

- Part 1: 8:00 to 12:00
- Part 2: 13:00 to 17:00
- Opening ceremony
- Closing ceremony
- 4 Specialized workshops with related to participants' fields study
- 4 Specialized visits to locations related to participants' fields of study
- 2 Friendly discussion sessions between students of two universities
- A day of urban and recreational visits

2 KEY OBJECTIVES

- Enhance bilateral academic and research level
- Promote mutual understanding through cultural exchange and dialogue.
- Explore key global issues and strengthen academic ties between COMSATS University and IAU Isfahan.
- Encourage intellectual discussions on Muslim world challenges and position both countries as regional academic hubs.
- This program aims to empower young leaders by fostering their critical thinking, presentation, and negotiation skills in the context of specialized

3 STRATEGY & MECHANISM

Curriculum Development and Academic Expertise

The camp will center collaboration with academic institutions to design a comprehensive one week program where four (4) topics will be discussed with one (1) topic each day. This camp includes study tours, workshops, and seminars on the region's history, culture, economy, and science. Each side will present their distinguished professors and propose their workshop topics.of study.

TOPICS	SUGGESTED SPEAKER(s)
Shared values and interactions of the Islamic religion (unity of the Islamic world)	Prof. Dr. ...(To be confirmed)
Cultural and historical interactions	Prof. Dr. ...(To be confirmed)
Specialized discussion about mentioned academic majors	To be confirmed

4

NATURE OF COOPERATION & FUNDING & SPONSORSHIP

- Each side commits to promoting cultural exchange and academic excellence.
- IAU Isfahan handle logistics in Isfahan for 20 students, 4 leaderships and speakers, covering accommodation, meals, and local transportation and related expenses of in Iran and Isfahan.
- IAU Isfahan will pay whole costs for Workshops, 7- day accommodation, specialized visits.
(Note: If, for any reason, your stay exceeds 7 days, any mentioned expenses should be paid by your own.)
- IAU Isfahan by Collaborating with local organizations in Isfahan will organize cultural, historical, industrial and scientific visits to deepen all camp participants' regional understanding.
- COMSATS University as content planner for Pakistani students, manages logistics in Pakistan, including flight arrangements for participants and speakers.
- Each side can own their sponsors regarding the expenses that incurs.

5

PROPOSED
PROGRAM

This camp will set to take place at our proposed time in early October 2025 (to be confirmed). The tentative weekly itinerary of the joint student camp is outlined below.

TIME	AGENDA
Day 1	Arrival of Participants and Organizing Committee Registration Opening Ceremony
Day 2	Breakfast Specialized Conference (?) Coffee Break Training Session (?) Lunch and Prayer Break University Tour (Faculties of the University) Specialized visit Dinner
Day 3	Breakfast Specialized Seminar (?) Coffee Break Friendly Discussion Session between participants of both sides Lunch and Prayer Break Historical Tour (?) Dinner
Day 4	Breakfast Specialized Workshop (?) Q & A Session University Tour 2 • Seed and Plant Breeding Research Center, • Dairy Factory (Sky) • knowledge-based Company (Meyar Danesh) Specialized Visit Rest & Dinner
Day 5	Isfahan Tour (Urban and Recreational Visits)
Day 6	Breakfast Student Presentation (outcome discussion about camp) Lunch and Prayer Break Closing Ceremony Departure

Note: These are proposed items. Please feel free to add any suggestions you may have, as this is a mutually beneficial arrangement.

The organizing committee at COMSATS University will select 20 students aged up to 30 years, through a rigorous application process that welcomes undergraduate and postgraduate candidates.

IAU Isfahan will also undertake the mentioned phases in selecting its students to join COMSATS University students.

Selection focuses on diversity in ethnicity, nationality, and academic background. Applicants should demonstrate interest in cross-cultural dialogue and understanding.

Successful candidates must have strong English skills and show high leadership potential and awareness of global issues.

7

Administrative Board

The organizing committee for this camp will be headed by the following team:

Note: Our proposed individuals are considered as an administrative board.

NAME	ORGANIZATION	DESIGNATION
Dr. Payam Najafi	IAU Isfahan	Rector
Dr. Vahidreza Seirafian	IAU Isfahan	Dean of International Faculty
Exudative Team	IAU Isfahan
	COMSATS University	Rector*
	COMSATS University	Academic Vice-Chancellor*
	COMSATS University	Dean of International Relation*
	COMSATS University	Exudative Leader*

8

THE JOINT STUDENT CAMP CONCLUSION

- Individual Assignment: Each participant will write an 800-word opinion article on a topic of their choice, based on the camp's academic syllabus.
- The joint student camp serving as a conduit for intellectual exchange between students from COMSATS University and IAU Isfahan is a valuable platform for cross-cultural understanding and collaboration. It enriches individual perspectives, fosters mutual respect and empathy, and sparks innovation and growth through robust dialogue and shared experiences.
- This initiative strengthens ties between both universities, both academically and spiritually, by promoting deeper understanding among students who will shape the futures of both countries and international developments.

Key Points:

- Joint online classes
- Student exchange
- Joint international workshops
- Mobility Program
- Holding scientific conferences among professor
- Cultural Exchange and Cooperation
- Enriching Individual Perspectives
- Inspiring Innovation and Leadership
- Establishing Sustainable Connections
- Strengthening Relations in Academic and Spiritual Areas