Subject: Academic Collaboration Opportunities with Walailak University, Thailand

Dear Sir,

The Embassy of Pakistan in Thailand is pleased to inform you of a communication received from Walailak University, Thailand, which outlines a series of academic initiatives designed to promote educational exchange and collaboration with Pakistani institutions.

2. Walailak University is currently offering the following opportunities to Pakistani students and academic staff:

- Scholarships for Master's and Ph.D. programs
- Semester-long exchange scholarships for undergraduate students
- Faculty exchange programs for research collaboration (IMPACT Fund)
- Graduate student co-supervision initiatives (iGRACE Fund)
- Potential for Double Degree Programs in mutually agreed fields
- Custom-designed academic and cultural programs

3. The Embassy encourages your institution to explore these opportunities for expanding academic horizons and fostering international partnerships. For additional information and collaboration proposals, the Center for International Affairs at Walailak University please visit <https://cia.wu.ac.th/> or university may be contacted at interaffairs.wu@gmail.com the enclosed pamphlet. It is also pertinent to mention that the allocated stipend may not be enough and students might need to chip in themselves for a comfortable living in the university.

Warm Regards
