

Dr. Rozilini M. Fernandez-Chung

Vice President
HELP University
Malaysia
www.help.edu.my/

Dr. Rozilini M. Fernandez-Chung is the Vice President (Quality Assurance) at HELP University, one of the leading private universities in Malaysia. Prior to joining HELP, she worked at the Malaysian Qualifications Agency, an agency under the Ministry of Education, Malaysia (MOHE) until 2010, as the principal officer with responsibility for the development of the Malaysian Qualifications Framework and other key quality assurance documents. Her previous work experiences include trainer-administrator at public and private higher education institutions and Parliamentary Officer with MOHE.

Dr. Rozilini holds an LL.B (Hons) from the University of Wales, Cardiff, M.Ed. from Deakin University, Certificate in Legal Practice from the Legal Profession Qualifying Board Malaysia; and Ed.D. from the University of Leicester. Her professional research and publication interests include transnational education and policies, quality in public and private higher education institutions, leadership and curriculum issues in higher education.

Relevant session(s):

Technical Session 1A

Invited Talk- 4 - Quality Assuring Transnational Education: The Necessary Evil in Internationalisation

[Back to Programme]