

Prof. M. Imtiaz Hossain

Vice Chancellor
Islamic University of Technology
Bangladesh
www.iutoic-dhaka.edu

Prof. M. Imtiaz Hossain is the Vice-Chancellor of the Islamic University of Technology, Bangladesh (IUT). He served at the Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET) for 32 years before joining IUT. He obtained his Ph.D from the University of Manchester Institute of Science and Technology (UMIST), England in 1988 under Commonwealth Scholarship. His field of Specialization is Power Plants, IC Engines, Fuels and Combustion, Renewable Energy, Environment, Heat Transfer etc.

Prof. Hossain has a good number of publications in national and international journals. At BUET he served in many capacities such as: Professor, Department of Mechanical Engineering; Director, Advisory Extension and Research Services; Head, Department of Mechanical Engineering; Director, Continuing Education Directorate and Dean, Faculty of Mechanical Engineering. Prof. Hossain is a Fellow of IEB, BSME and Life member of NOAMI. He is married with two sons. His elder son graduated from the Department of EEE of BUET and is currently pursuing his Ph.D on Nanotechnology in Purdue University, USA.

Relevant session(s):

Technical Session 1A

Invited Talk-10 – Research and Innovation: The Role of International Collaboration

[\[Back to Programme\]](#)