

Prof. Dr. Muhammad Rasul Jan

Vice Chancellor

University of Peshawar

Pakistan

www.upesh.edu.pk

Prof. Dr. Muhammad Rasul Jan has been the Vice-Chancellor of the University of Peshawar since January 2013. Prior to his current position he has served as Vice-Chancellor, University of Malakand from April 2008 till October 2013. Prof. Rasul Jan has done his Ph.D in Analytical Chemistry from University College Cork, Ireland in 1982 followed by three year Post-Doctoral studies from University College Dublin, Ireland. He joined the Department of Chemistry, University of Peshawar in September 1985 and has served there in the capacity of Associate and Professor. He has also served there as Head Department of Environmental Sciences and as a Director, Institute of Chemical Sciences. He has been the Fulbright Scholar in New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, USA and a visiting scientist in Arizona State University, USA. Prof. Rasul Jan is fellow of the Chemical Society of Pakistan and Pakistan Academy of Sciences. He is the recipient of presidential award, Pride of Performance in the field of Chemistry.

Panel Discussion – 10: Partnering with Industry