

Prof. Dr. Syed Khawaja Alqama

Vice Chancellor

Bahauddin Zakariya University

Pakistan

www.bzu.edu.pk/

Prof. Dr. Syed Khawaja Alqama, Vice Chancellor, Bahauddin Zakaria University, Multan holds a PhD degree in International Relations from the University of Kent, Canterbury United Kingdom. He did his M.A in International Relations from the same university in 1970-1980 and did his M.Sc. in International Relations from the Quaid-e-Azam University. He graduated from the Government College of Lahore. Prior to his appointment as the Vice Chancellor, Bahauddin Zakaria University, Multan, Prof. Alqama served as the Ambassador of Pakistan to the republic of Yemen. (2009-2011). He also served as the Dean of Arts and Social Sciences at the B.Z.U. Prof. Alqama belongs to the well-known Khawaja family of the Bengal. His father, late Khawaja Khairuddin was an active Muslim leaguer and was then member of the National Assembly of Pakistan during the Ayub Khan Era. He was also the mayor of Dhaka. Prof. Alqama is the author of a book and many articles published in the journal of national and international repute.

Panel Discussion – 4: Sharing of Knowledge and Fostering Collaboration